

Our Warranty Promise:

Reliance Mechanical Services is proud to consider itself one of the most reliable HVAC-R service providers in and around Long Island and the Five Boroughs. We only provide the best parts in the industry backed with a warranty that is as strong as our name. We offer a full 90-day part and labor warranty on every service call we provide. If Reliance Mechanical Services has to return to your home or business within 90-days of a previous service for the same call issue due to a faulty part or labor, there will be no charge for the call.

That is our Promise
